Day 1 & 2 | Fly to Melbourne

Enjoy in-flight entertainment and meal service as we embark on our Ultimate Australian Adventure. Upon crossing the International Date Line, we lose a calendar day. Meals: In-Flight

Day 3 | Fly to Melbourne

Upon arriving in Melbourne, we'll take a quick orientation tour and then have lunch together. After checking into our hotel, we'll gather in the evening for a welcome dinner. Meals: L, D

Day 4 | Melbourne / Phillip Island / Penguin Parade

As we tour Melbourne, we'll visit the Shrine of Remembrance, pass by Federation Square and Parliament House, and have lunch at the Queen Victoria Market. In the afternoon, we'll proceed to Phillip Island for a unique wildlife experience. At the Koala Conservatory, we'll wander tree-top boardwalks for an up close view of koalas, wallabies, and abundant birdlife. Stand on the Nobbies, a set of cobblestone rocks that jut out from the coastline, to get the perfect viewing spot of the largest colony of Fur Seals. At sunset, we'll watch the world-famous Penguin Parade where a colony of little penguins descend from the ocean. Meals: B, D

Day 5 | Mornington Peninsula / Sculpture Garden / Skydeck
Enjoy superb views as we travel to Mornington Peninsula where we'll take an aerial gondola to view the breathtaking Australian landscape high above the treetops. We'll continue to the Trofeo Estate for a lunch at this boutique winery, followed by the Pt. Leo Estate Sculpture Garden. Tonight, stand atop the Melbourne Skydeck, taking in the dazzling views of the skyline. The evening is yours to explore Melbourne on your own. Meals: B, L

Day 6 | Great Ocean Rd / Otway Nat'l Park / Port Campbell Nat'l Park
Great Ocean Road enchants with views of lush rainforests, gushing waterfalls, wind-swept beaches, and cuddly koalas and kangaroos. Coastal cliffs and golden beaches are a major attraction in picturesque Apollo Bay. The Great Otway National Park features a rugged coastline of beautiful sandy beaches, tranquil lakes, and cascading waterfalls. At Port Campbell National Park we'll marvel at the stark stone pillars of the Twelve Apostles, Razorback, and Island Arch. Spend the evening exploring Melbourne on your own. Meals: B, L

Day 7 | Fly to Cairns

Today, we fly to Cairns, home to the Great Barrier Reef, lush rainforests, and Aboriginal history and culture. After checking into our hotel, we'll enjoy a succulent dinner together. Meals: B, D

Day 8 | Cairns / Great Barrier Reef

Grab your swimsuit and sunscreen as we set sail on a beautiful catamaran to experience Michaelmas Cay, a pristine sand cay surrounded by colorful reefs and a migratory seabird sanctuary. Take advantage of the included activities such as snorkeling in the shallow waters, cruising in the semi-sub for a view of the reef or watching the fish feeding presentation. The Great Barrier Reef's stunning views and natural beauty will leave you in awe. Meals: B, L

Day 9 | Cairns

Explore the wonders of an ancient tropical rainforest and learn about one of the most botanically fascinating and diverse areas on earth. At the Rainforestation Nature Park, we'll learn about the oldest surviving culture with the Pamagirri Aboriginal Experience. Watch a traditional dance routine, spear presentation, and didgeridoo performance. Experience the rainforest's fascinating plants and wildlife by land and water aboard an amphibious army duck. We'll shuttle to Kuranda Village where you'll have time on your own to enjoy the stunning natural beauty, search for handcrafted souvenirs, or visit the koala and butterfly sanctuaries. We'll return to Cairns via the Kuranda Scenic Railway, winding its way through the tropical mountain ranges. Meals: B, L

Day 10 | Fly to Sydney

Today we fly to Sydney, one of Australia's largest cities, offering iconic must-sees such as the Opera House and Harbour Bridge, a larger-than-life music and food scene, and photogenic waterside hubs. After checking into our hotel, we'll gather for a delicious dinner. Meals: B, D

Day 11 | Sydney / Opera House

Our tour of Sydney begins through the historic Rocks area to take in the views of Hyde Park, St. Mary's Cathedral, Parliament House and the Art Gallery. Step inside the architectural masterpiece of the Sydney Opera House and run your hands over the world-famous shell tiles, take a seat in the elegant white birch timber chairs, and marvel at the stunning vaulted ceilings. We'll continue our Sydney tour with stops at Mrs. Macquarie's Chair for magnificent views of the Opera House and Sydney Harbour Bridge. After lunch at a local restaurant, we'll proceed to the iconic Bondi Beach with its fine sand and curling waves. In the evening, explore Sydney on your own. Meals: B, L

Day 12 | Blue Mountains / Scenic World / Featherdale Wildlife Park

Discover the spectacular Blue Mountains National Park, a rugged and beautiful region home to remarkable geographic and botanic features and rich in Aboriginal culture. Arriving at Scenic World, we'll experience the thrill of the world's steepest railway, glide between clifftops on the glass-floored Scenic Skyway, descend into the ancient Jamison Valley, and take in the views of Three Sisters and Katoomba Falls. Enjoy lunch together at Lookout Echo Point before departing for the Featherdale Wildlife Park, home to the largest collection of Australian wildlife. Have your photo taken with a cuddly koala and see kangaroos, wombats, dingoes, and penguins. Meals: B, L

Day 13 | Sydney / Dinner Cruise

Today is yours to explore Sydney on your own. In the evening, we'll take a Starlight Dinner Cruise with views of the glittering city skyline, glistening stars overhead, and a delicious dinner on the water. Meals: B, D

Day 14 | Travel Home

As we cross the International Date Line on our flight home, reflect on the great memories and good times had on our Ultimate Australian Adventure. Meals: B
